This case is subject to summary dismissal under the Prison Litigation Reform Act, which includes 28 U.S.C. § 1915A. Since this case is subject to summary dismissal, it is not necessary for this Court to consider any issues relating to payment of the filing fee in installments. See Misc. No. 4:96-MC38-2 (D.S.C., June 20, 1996).

The Office of the Clerk of Court is directed not to authorize the issuance and service of process in this case, unless it (the Office of the Clerk of Court) is instructed by a United States District Judge or a Senior United States District Judge to do so.

The Office of the Clerk of Court may file the pleadings as of the date they are received for docketing.

For Plaintiff's future reference, if Plaintiff wants copies of items that he files with the Clerk of Court returned to him, he (Plaintiff) must provide the copies and a self-addressed envelope with sufficient postage attached to the envelope for return mail.

Plaintiff is a pro se litigant. Plaintiff's attention is directed to the following important notice:

TO PLAINTIFF:

You are ordered to always keep the Clerk of Court advised in writing (Post Office Box 835, Charleston, South Carolina 29402) if your address changes for any reason, so as to assure that orders or other matters that specify deadlines for you to meet will be received by you. If as a result of your failure to comply with this Order, you fail to file something you are required to file within a deadline set by a District Judge or a Magistrate Judge, your case may be dismissed for violating this Order. Therefore, if you have a change of address before this case is ended, you must comply with this Order by immediately advising the Clerk of Court in writing of such change of address. Your failure to do so will not be excused by the Court.

* In the event that a limitations issue arises in the above-captioned case, Plaintiff will have the benefit of the holding in Houston v. Lack, 487 U.S. 266 (1988). The Houston v. Lack "delivery" date in this case is May 11, 2005.

Put this Order with your own record of this case so that you will not overlook your duty. If an attorney serves you by mail on behalf of a Defendant, you also have a duty to notify that attorney if your address is to be changed for mail purposes.

Plaintiff is, hereby, informed that if his address changes in the future, he must provide his prison or jail address. Hence, the Office of the Clerk of Court shall not enter any change of address submitted by Plaintiff which directs that mail be sent to a person other than Plaintiff unless that person is an attorney admitted to practice before this Court, and the attorney has entered an appearance.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
